

The traditions of this family are that our ancestors were natives of Scotland and moved from Scotland to Donegal, Ireland, in 1597. Burk's Dictionary of Landed Gentry states a family of this name came from Argyleshire, Scotland, about 1597 to Tyrone Province of Ulster.

Alexander McClintock, the founder of this family, came from Ireland to America in 1728. After living awhile in Pennsylvania the family began to scatter and descendants are to be found in Ohio, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Washington, Colorado, California, New York and Georgia, as well as in the Virginias.

William, the 1st, one of the sons of Alexander McClintock, was born in Ireland in 1717 and died in 1801 in Virginia, and was buried in the McClintock Graveyard on Jackson River, in Bath County, close to where his house was built on place bought in 1774. Sometime between 1774 and 1776 he removed from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania and settled in Bath County, Virginia, then Botetourt. He was probably the one to change the form of the surname, as he could not write, as his will was signed with a mark.

His brothers who remained in Pennsylvania preserved all the older spelling, and even in this line of deeds, marriages, licenses and similar documents show the original form until about 1790.

There were six boys and two girls in Lancaster County, Pa. in 1771; began to die 1773.

The Virginia McClintocks, at least, have been Presbyterians, and in all probability the ancestor was of this religion.

William, the 2nd, son of William and Nancy Shanklin McClintock, served in the Revolutionary war in Captain Andrew Wallace's Company, 8th Virginia Regiment, Colonel James Wood in command. This service was in 1778-1779 - discharged February 16, 1779. Joined Captain John Bellar's Company February, 1781, a rifleman, and received wounds in the Battle of Guilford Court House March 16, 1781. Died from wounds received in that battle five years later, but married in 1782, Alice Mann. Both buried in Bath County, Virginia on Jackson River in the McClintic graveyard on the old McClintic place bought by his father in 1774 who built his house close to where this graveyard is. William Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and their wives are buried here. Alice, wife of William No. 2 has a large maple tree at the head of her grave. The others have slabs. All the children of William No. 3, with their wives or husbands, except Moses, Shanklin and Susan. 4 of the 5th generation and only 1 of the 6th are buried here. There are a good many graves with only stones to mark them.

Alice, wife of William No. 2 received a pension from the State of Virginia until she married William H. Cavendish, a lawyer and a younger son of Lord Cavendish, of England, / in 1804. She bought the Cavendish place from her brother-in-law, Robert McClintic, and moved there to live in 1802 when he moved to Greenbrier County, West Virginia.

Alexander McClintic, brother of William, 2d, was first on church roll and an elder in Warm Springs Church, and a Justice of the Peace appointed by Governor of Virginia in 1807. His son, Moses, was born on Jackson River on "Old Uncle Alexander McClintic Place".
